Working With Children Check

What is a Working With Children Check?

The Working With Children Check provides a unique number (the WWCC number) to a person who has been cleared to work with children. The WWCC application process involves a national police check and a review of findings of workplace misconduct. The result is either a clearance to work with children for five years, or a bar against working with children. Barred applicants may not work or volunteer with children. If a person receives an interim bar, they must be immediately removed from their child-related position in the organisation. The WWCC clearance lasts for five years and is continuously monitored for any new relevant offences.

How to apply for a WWCC Check And Obtain A WWCC Number

1. Complete a WWCC application form on-line at www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au & receive an APP (Application) Number
2. Take the APP number, proof of ID and payment (if applicable) to a Service NSW Centre. Please be aware, volunteers do not pay a fee as the WWCC Check is free for volunteers.
3. The NSW Service Centre will issue a receipt
4. The applicant should receive their WWCC Number by email within approximately 7-10 days. 5. The applicant provides their WWCC Number to their club.

Garden Suburb Football Club require all volunteers to obtain and provide their WWCC number regardless of the exemptions.
